Other features include: • A breakdown & analysis of pre-trial issues Includes dozens of forms • An overview of the current foreclosure crisis • The latest developments concerning mortgage fraud • Legal strategies for borrowers including extensive treatment of lender liability laws • Highlights differences among Florida courts in such areas as defaults, receiverships, objections to foreclosure sales & motions for deficiency • Provided an unparalleled examination of the law and strategies for deficiency judgments, including an analysis of the rarely considered right to trial by jury • Presents the mechanics and case law governing foreclosure sales and the issuance of title, as well as the framework for objections to sale The eBook versions of this title feature links to Lexis Advance for further legal research options.

Florida Real Property Litigation Dec 07 2020 Florida Real Property Litigation provides invaluable statutory and case analysis, pleading forms, and practice pointers. This essential reference examines a broad range of topics, including access and eviction, foreclosure of mortgages and liens, boundary and title problems, and covenants and easements, and features an entire chapter devoted to successful recovery of attorneys' fees in real property disputes. To further aid the practitioner, the text incorporates over 100 forms and checklists to guide you through efficient and effective litigation. Highlights of the new 9th Edition include: Discussion of 2018 Florida Legislature's substantial amendments to F.S. Chapter 66, governing ejectments, (1) authorizing a person with a superior right to possession of real property to recover possession by ejectment; (2) providing that a person entitled to possession of real property has a cause of action to regain possession from another person who obtained possession of real property by forcible entry, unlawful entry, or unlawful detainer; (3) requiring that the court determine the right of possession and damages; and (4) prohibiting a governmental entity from adopting or keeping in effect certain ordinances and rules based on customary use, etc. Ch. 2018-94, § 1, Laws of Fla. Discussion of newly enacted F.S. 82.05, title "Service of Process," establishing how a demand for possession should be served in a cause of action of ejectment. Discussion of the Florida Supreme Court's decision in Bolettiere Resort Villas Condominium Ass'n, Inc. v. Bank of New York Mellon, 228 So.3d 72 (Fla. 2017), ending the debate over the application of the statute of limitations for foreclosure actions, holding that the statute of limitations begins to run upon acceleration (and not a missed payment), and a second foreclosure on the same loan is permitted, provided the default alleged in the second action is within the five-year limitations period. Discussion of the judicial split regarding whether a circuit court has subject matter jurisdiction to adjudicate an independent deficiency action when a plaintiff requests deficiency relief in its complaint in a separate foreclosure action involving the same note and the foreclosure court enters a final judgment reserving jurisdiction to grant deficiency relief. Discussion of restrictive covenants and, on a matter of first impression, the court in Santa Monica Beach

Property Owners Ass'n, Inc. v. Acord, 219 So.3d 111 (Fla. 1st DCA 2017), addressing the interesting and increasingly prevalent trend involving property owners renting their property for short-term vacation rentals, using services such as Airbnb. Discussion of access to property by nonowners and, on a matter of first impression, whether the presence of a "No Soliciting" sign, placed on the front porch of private property, negates the government's authority to access the private property. State v. Crowley, 232 So.3d 473 (Fla. 1st DCA 2017). Discussion of determination of liability under Bert J. Harris, Jr., Private Property Rights Protection Act and Florida Supreme Court's decision in Hardee County v. FINR II, Inc., 221 So.3d 1162 (Fla. 2017), holding that owners whose property has not been directly acted upon by a governmental entity may not state a claim under the Act.

23 Legal Defenses to Foreclosure Jun 01 2020 23 Legal Defenses to Foreclosure breaks down 23 powerful foreclosure defenses into easy-to-understand chapters. The Complete Idiot's Guide to Buying Foreclosures, Second Edition Mar 10 2021 One person's loss is another person's gain. This invaluable guide explains everything readers need to know about finding and financing foreclosed and soon-to-be foreclosed residential properties with the highest potential return. Completely updated, this new edition reflects recent changes in the way banks and the government dispose of foreclosed properties, covers new laws, and advises how to steer clear of scams. ? First edition sold more than 30,000 copies in a year and a half ? The national residential foreclosure rate rose to from .75% to 1.16% (of all mortgages) by the end of 2006-the biggest jump in 30 years ? Foreclosures are expected to continue to increase as interest rates rise and monthly payments on short-term variable rate and interest-only loans make homes unaffordable

California Construction Law Feb 27 2020 The topics in the book are organized in the same manner as they would actually arise in a construction project. First, the book deals with pre-construction issues licensing, bidding, and the formation of the construction contract. It then discusses what happens when things go wrong with breach of contract by the owner and/or the contractor. An in-depth analysis is provided with regard to claims involving delay, disruption, and acceleration. Several chapters are then devoted to statutory remedies-mechanics' liens, stop notices, and bonds both on public and private works. Finally, coverage is provided on other issues and subjects involving the construction industry, including expanding liability, home improvement contracts, bankruptcy, and alternative dispute resolution.

Foreclosure Nation Jul 14 2021 The family residence is the backbone of the American economy, the most valuable and enduring asset for those who have achieved a financial foothold. Yet today record numbers of households confront foreclosure. In the next year it is estimated that over two million Americans will lose their homes and almost two billion dollars of wealth will disappear in the process. How did the traditional "American Dream" morph into a nightmare for so many? Real estate attorney and educator Shari B. Olefson, a recognized expert in the current mortgage crisis and its effects on homeowners, explains how America slipped to the edge of this dangerous stagnation-recession precipice. In plain language that is easily understandable to the average person, she clarifies legal and financial terminology and describes how our country's mortgage system really works. Utilizing real-life lender and borrower interviews, she exposes its intrinsic flaws and often discriminatory practices, from the mortgage application process to the securitization of bundled mortgages by large investment firms. She also provides evidence to show the government's and Wall Street's roles in both causing and solving the problem. Above all, Olefson offers expert tips, tools, and resources to help you:

- Choose a mortgage professional and understand what's motivating him or her
- Decide what mortgage product fits best and when to refinance
- Get the best fees, interest rate, and service
- Create your own solutions for navigating the credit crunch
- Know what to do when you can't afford your mortgage
- Protect your home if you are at risk of foreclosure
- Understand how to proceed if you are already in foreclosure
- Capitalize on emerging opportunities and avoid the scams and mortgage fraud
- Prepare for coming changes

Foreclosure Nation demystifies the real estate bubble and the subprime mortgage crises that followed. With bold, clear visuals like inventory, absorption, and price trend graphs, Olefson pinpoints exactly when and why experts are predicting a recovery. She also cites statistics that strongly suggest the number of foreclosures will surge in the fall of 2008 and again in 2009, with increased reverberations felt throughout the US and global economies. Foreclosure Nation will prove indispensable to explaining what is happening and guiding readers through. Whether you are planning on buying your first home, struggling to meet your current mortgage payments, facing foreclosure, or wondering how your investments will be affected, this comprehensive book will assuage the fear of the unknown, empowering you to make wise choices and protect your most valuable assets.

Underwater Mortgage Dec 19 2021 Kelly Archer is a southern California short-sale specialist. His wealth of knowledge bleeds into his desire to help others through difficult economic times. Kelly has a true understanding of how negatively the economic crisis has affected millions of Americans. He applies his experience and attention to each case whether it be a short-sale or any other service the client may be in need of, always mindful of the concerns and worries of the client. Kelly Archer has worked in the industry since 1983 he has done and seen all the possible scenarios when it comes to construction, and the real estate market. He started working in the construction field with his father, who was a land developer; then went on to getting his contractors license, ultimately taking over his fathers company. Kelly found that he had a burning desire for something more. This brought him to the conclusion that it would benefit him as well as his clients, to get his brokers license, and to open up a real estate office in southern California. He found that in today's economic market, with the knowledge he possessed, he could possibly assist them by leading them along the gruesome path of near homelessness, to living in a comfortable home that was within their means. Kelly has even taken it a step further and written a book that will teach people how this truly can be done. Written in a way that is easy to understand and is amazingly feasible to duplicate, giving his readers hope and a light at the end of the tunnel. By far the most important read for those suffering and in fear of losing their homes, and having no answers as to where to turn. Kelly just may have the answer you have been waiting for!
