Psychology Jul 04 2020 Written by an experienced teacher and senior examiner with an in-depth understanding of teaching and assessments for the IB psychology SL and HL courses. This new TestPrep book helps students to familiarise themselves with the psychology SL and HL exams. It provides information about the approach of the papers and the types of exam questions they will come across. Students can practice answering the questions by writing directly into the book, just like they do in the exam. And, as they work through, there are strategies, hints and support for answering the questions PLUS fully worked solutions at the end. From some excellent and unique practice questions for Paper 1 to invaluable advice from the experts on how to tackle Paper 2 (plus some unseen stimulus material for HL students for Paper 3), this book provides essential exam practice support for students revising for their psychology exams. Students will: understand what to expect from the psychology exam papers - with a breakdown of the format of Paper 1 (SL and HL), Paper 2 (SL and HL) and Paper 3 (HL only), the command terms and the assessment objectives see example answers to Paper 1, Paper 2 and Paper 3-style questions - with brand new, unseen sample answers to exam-style questions and answer analysis from the point of view of an examiner test themselves - with three complete sets of exam-style psychology practice papers (the first set includes loads of additional tips, examiner commentary and support to guide students to achieve high marks; the second set has fewer helpful prompts; the last set has no additional help and is designed so students can have a go at it themselves!) check answers - with fully-worked solutions in the back of the book.

Applied Psychology Dec 29 2019 Electronic Inspection Copy available to instructors here In this revised new edition, Bayne and Jinks expertly combine the professional and academic aspects of applied psychology. The contributing authors, all experts in their field, provide authoritative and engaging overviews of their areas of expertise and an important range of perspectives. The book is organised into three parts. The first part is a general context for applied psychology including a discussion of questions about evidence based practice. The second part discusses practice and training in a plethora of areas of applied psychology, including all of the traditional routes (for e.g. clinical, health and educational psychology), eight 'relative newcomers' to the field (for e.g. sport and forensic psychology) and four areas not always regarded as applied psychology: counselling, coaching, careers guidance and lecturing. The innovative third part is a roundtable of expert practitioners commenting on the new directions they would like to see in their areas of applied psychology. Applied Psychology: Research, Training and Practice 2nd Edition will be essential for all students considering a career in an applied field, either those studying applied psychology at undergraduate level or MSc students on applied psychology courses at this level.
