Migration in Christianity. Events of Migration in the New Testament Oct 26 2019 Essay from the year 2016 in the subject Theology - Miscellaneous, course: Private Research, language: English, abstract: As a participant of the course "People and faiths on the move" at the Ecumenical Institute Bossey in July 2016, the author of this paper was inspired by the message of the course, which focused on migration, to write down this perspective on migration within Christianity with focus on the time of the New Testament and particularly just before and immediately after the life of Jesus Christ. In looking at the issue of how people have moved from place to place over the years in search of either a means of survival or a god, this theme anchors strongly on how we can better view some religious experiences of today. It can be seen clearly that there is surely no one faith that does not have in its structure some issues regarding migration. It is either some members of the faith or some items that had been forced to leave or willingly left a certain place to another for some reasons. It is worth noting that the way we will treat the issue of migration here may remain unsatisfactory to others since this paper will also dare into the spiritual dimension of migration. Migration therefore would be viewed here bearing in mind the three angles, being: internal, external and spiritual migrations. This paper does not desire to view Migration only as a movement from one country to the other but also as a movement within the same national territory and as involving both physical movement and spiritual journeys too. In this way, it would be clearer to see certain features of migration in the New Testament. This paper also tries to highlight some aspects of migration in the remaining two Abrahamic faiths, Islam and Judaism, which means that the focus will be on Christianity and allusions will be made to Islam and Judaism. Judaism and Christianity have a lot in common on the issue which will be discussed already at the beginning of this paper. Islam will be examined.

International Review of Biblical Studies / Internationale Zeitschriftenschau Fur Bibelwissenschaft Und Grenzgebiete Mar 31 2020 Formerly known by its subtitle "Internationale Zeitschriftenschau für Bibelwissenschaft und Grenzgebiete", the International Review of Biblical Studies has served the scholarly community ever since its inception in the early 1950's. Each annual volume includes approximately 2,000 abstracts and summaries of articles and books that deal with the Bible and related literature, including the Dead Sea Scrolls, Pseudepigrapha, Non-canonical gospels, and ancient Near Eastern writings. The abstracts - which may be in English, German, or French - are arranged thematically under headings such as e.g. "Genesis", "Matthew", "Greek language", "text and textual criticism", "exegetical methods and approaches", "biblical theology", "social and religious institutions", "biblical personalities", "history of Israel and early Judaism", and so on. The articles and books that are abstracted and reviewed are collected annually by an international team of collaborators from over 300 of the most important periodicals and book series in the fields covered.

Early Christian Manuscripts Jan 10 2021 The authors of the nine essays in this collection deal with individual or certain sets of manuscripts in order to demonstrate that approach and method are both crucial and pivotal aspects for a sound investigation. Thus, the essays serve as a variety of approaches destined by their topics, but all of them concerned about acknowledged methods.

Last Philosophical Testament Jun 22 2019 This volume collects together Russell's philosophical writings during the period from 1947-68. This volume collects together Russell's philosophical writings during the period from 1947-68. For about half of this period Russell worked steadily at philosophy but after the publication of My Philosophical Development in 1959 he retired from academic philosophy for the second time. After that date, only the occasional philosophical piece appeared, as he was preoccupied with political writings. In this volume there are a handful of papers dated later than 1959, and all of these were certainly written by Russell himself. This volume contains Russell's writings on diverse philosophical interests, including autobiographical and self-critical papers, critiques of other philosophers and his controversial opinions on Christianity.

Ahavah – Die Liebe Gottes im Alten Testament May 26 2022 Die populäre Gegenüberstellung von dem "Gott des Zornes und der Gewalt" im Alten Testament, und dem "Gott der Liebe" im Neuen Testament wird in diesem Band umfassend untersucht. 16 Beiträge erheben den Befund im Alten Testament – von Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus bis zu den Psalmen, von den Propheten bis zum Hohenlied – wissenschaftlich und zeigen auf, wie tief sowohl das Handeln und Fühlen Gottes gegenüber dem Menschen und entsprechend das Handeln des Menschen gegenüber Gott und den Mitmenschen von ahavah = Liebe geprägt ist. Vier neutestamentliche Analysen zur Bergpredigt, dem Johannesevangelium, 1 Kor 13 und Hebr 12 decken eine tiefe Strukturanalogie von Altem Testament und Neuem Testament auf, deren Gegenwartsrelevanz in Beiträgen zur Bedeutung des Alten Testaments für Diakonie und Predigt aufgewiesen wird. Die "Liebe Gottes" steht im Zentrum der Theologie des Alten Testaments. [Ahavah – The Love of God in the Old Testament. Origins, transformations and effects] The popular contrasting juxtaposition of the "God of Wrath and Violence" in the Old Testament, and the "God of Love" in the New Testament, is extensively investigated in this volume. 16 contributions investigate scientifically the texts in the Old Testament, from Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus to the Psalms, from the prophets to the Song of songs, and show how deeply the actions and emotions of God towards man and man's action against God and the fellow human beings are influenced by of ahavah = love. 4 New Testament papers (on the Sermon on the mount, the gospel of John, 1 Cor 13 and Hebr 12) reveal a deep structural analogy of Old Testament and New Testament, whose present relevance is shown in contributions about social work and preaching. The "love of God" is at the center of the theology of the Old Testament.

Critical Introduction to the New Testament. Continuity and Application in Contemporary Life Sep 17 2021 Academic Paper from the year 2020 in the subject Theology - Biblical Theology, grade: 95, Nations University, course: Critical Introduction to the New Testament, language: English, abstract: This paper discusses the application of the New Testament in contemporary life, with particular attention to how to distinguish the universal and limited or specific application of the texts, as well as to provide a solution that reiterates the meaning and the means of salvation. Christians often read the Bible a few verses or a single chapter at a time. As a result, they may overlook the context and draw unwarranted conclusions. The critic, on the other hand, looks for the inconsistencies that inevitably throws him on the track. In this paper, the problem of proving the continuity of the New Testament is approached in a way that ties it together by means of a theme or connectivity. Moreover, since the material is now two thousand years old, modern New Testament students are faced with the problem of application, especially how to understand the original intention behind the New Testament for current human history. However, Jews and Muslims, for their part, are challenged by the question of biblical authority, a problem that confuses many people but presents them with difficulties. In other words, the two overriding questions are what Christians mean by New and Old Testaments and the relationship between them. This problem is compounded by the fact that Jews do not accept the New Testament while Muslims accept both, in theory. However, the common Messianic theme of the two covenants ties them together, so that the evidence points to the meaning of New Testament continuity and integration.
