Standing on the Promises Jul 04 2020 With a promise for each day, this 365-day devotional from Our Daily Bread encourages you to trust God and His love, care, and guidance for you.

God's Promises in Isaiah Jan 10 2021 Pleas let me tell you why I included these verses from Isaiah These verses were a real eye opener to me. It is a graphic description of what Christ went through for me. Read the whole thing, but if you dare, read verses 4 through 6, perhaps you will get the idea that the story we hear at Easter time, about Christ giving up his life for us, relates to this story in Isaiah. (ISAIAH 53:1-12 NLT). It may also answer your question about "if you are an answer to prayer?" How much did the Suffering Servant give up for us?

25 Powerful Promises From God Jul 24 2019 God Never Breaks His Promises

Pinky Promise Oct 19 2021 Throughout the Bible, we see so many instances when God promises to help His beloved children through difficult times. Too often we forget these promises and allow the pressures of the world get in the way of living fully for Christ. In this study, we will explore 31 promises God makes to us and allow these promises to bring us encouragement on life's journey.

Kneeling on the Promises of God Nov 07 2020 As you've likely heard, the hymn "Standing on the Promises" encourages us to trust God and take Him at His word. This book, however, focuses on kneeling on the promises of God as we pray in agreement with God's revealed will. If we believe (or simply want to believe!) the Bible gives us God's word on matters crucial to our lives, the promises of God and the prayers based on those promises will surely reinforce our beliefs, strengthen our faith, and empower our prayer life. With a spirit and mindset to trust God, we can put aside old wounds or worries as though we have just been born again! Then we are free! And, freed to trust, we can live forever in the presence of the All-Seeing, All-Knowing, Creator God - our Father Who is in heaven and yet lives with us here on earth. May this book, Kneeling on the Promises of God, help us to claim God's promises to us as we pray in faith.

Lighthouse Reflections Nov 19 2021 "Blessed be the LORD who has given rest to his people Israel, according to all that he promised. Not one word has failed of all his good promise, which he spoke by Moses his servant." (1 Kings 8:56) In addition to history, prophecy and instruction on objective morality, the Bible contains over 7000 of God's promises to mankind. This book explores some of those promises in depth in a simple yet thoughtful way, bolstering our faith firmly in the bedrock of God's word. It is as relevant for those who are "new in Christ" as it is for those who are seasoned veterans in the army of God. Broken into a 15 day format, this book is easy to digest, citing scripture that reveals a promise from God and then exploring how that promise applies to our daily life.

The Promises of God Jun 26 2022 What Promises Can You Believe? In The Promises of God, Dr. R. C. Sproul shows how God—the one true Promise Keeper—always keeps His promises. Drawing from his expansive theological background, Dr. Sproul addresses questions such as these: How do we know that God will fulfill His promises to us? What can we learn about God's faithfulness as we wait for His promises to be fulfilled? What was the agreement God the Father had with Jesus before the beginning of the world? What does God's covenant with Adam mean for us today? What common covenant do atheists and other non-Christians participate in with God? What does God's covenant have to do with His forgiveness of our sins today? Why did Jesus have to die to complete God's covenant with us? God's promises throughout history are the foundation for your relationship with Him. Here you will see how and why He keeps His promises to you, from now through eternity.

Chief Promises of God Unto Man (God's Promises) Jan 28 2020

The Promises of God May 02 2020 This study is the first to investigate why Paul makes exclusive use of 'epangelia' for the divine pledge when referring to the Abrahamic covenant, a usage of the term never found in the OT-LXX. After examining Jewish writings and Greek literature of the classical and Hellenistic periods, this study demonstrates that Paul is rather unique in his exclusive use of the 'epangelia' word group for the divine pledge and for using the term predominantly in reference to the Abrahamic promises. This exclusive usage is further deemed unexpected in that the 'horkos' and 'omnymi' lexemes are by far the terms most commonly associated with God's promises to Abraham in the OT, the literature with which Paul was most familiar. The study then moves to explain why Paul has chosen this path of discontinuity, where it is argued that Paul's exclusive choice of 'epangelia' for the divine promise is driven by its conceptual and linguistic correspondence with the 'euangelion', one of the terms Paul adopted from the early church that forms the core of his ministry. This conceptual word study of the divine promise will benefit Pauline scholars interested in Paul's use of the OT as well as his association of the 'euangelion' and 'epangelia' word groups.

God's Promises Nov 27 2019 The promise of God is like a seed given to a farmer. It must be planted in good soil and well taken care of. Courageously and patiently, with much devotion, that farmer will vigilantly wait, observing his crop day by day without distraction until the harvest comes. We do not believe in God because things look good, but because we must put our total trust in the Lord, whatever the circumstances may be. But what some forgot is that if the presence of the Lord isn't with His people, the Ark of the Covenant among them is nothing more than a piece of equipment. Walking in obedience to the Lord is an opportunity for those who are devoted to Him to position themselves for victory. Waiting on the Lord is about knowing the God who gives us the understanding to position ourselves to receive the fulfilment of His promises.

God's Promises for Boys Dec 21 2021 An easy way to help young boys see God's promises and how they can rely on His love in their daily lives. The promise verses in this book are selected from the bestselling International Children's Bible® to offer comfort and encouragement when a boy is feeling afraid, lonely, worried, angry, dissatisfied, discouraged, sad, rebellious, impatient, or sick . . . and when they need reassurance of God's protection, love, forgiveness, help . . . and that He listens when they pray. It's a great way for children to hide God's Word in their hearts. Sample text: Sometimes it's hard to tell the truth when you feel like you have something to hide. But remember—when it's hard to be honest: God promises to reward Truth—not Lies! "You must do these things to enjoy life and have many happy days. You must not say evil things. You must not tell lies." Psalms 34:12-13

God Promises - God Delivers Oct 26 2019 This book is a Bible study of the first twelve chapters of the Book of Joshua. It is an attempt to understand the Word of God in the context of the history of the Jewish people and to apply an understanding of the Word of God to the practice of the Christian life in the twenty-first century. The study is focused upon understanding portions of the character of God, love and wrath, and how they are consistent throughout human history. The Book of Joshua completes the redemption of Israel that was begun in the Book of Exodus. The two books taken together provide a continuum of history of the Jewish people. Exodus is the book of redemption of the people of Israel out of Egypt and Joshua is the book of redemption of the people of Israel into the Promised Land.

This handy, word-based devotional prayer book is designed to jump-start your prayer life and help you meditate and stand on the promises that God has for you. As you pray these promises by faith, extend them with your own words and thoughts to God, who always has an open ear to your prayers. Dig deep into God's promises for you. Decree and confess them in your life, and believe that you receive. Enjoy prosperity and good health as you pray and believe God's best for you.

Promises From God For Dads Sep 05 2020 Promises From God for Dads One of the missing links in many relationships today is trust. Too often, people promise one thing, and they do another. But God said in Psalm 89:34, "My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips." This is one of the most assuring promises in scriptures. When you are torn apart by pressing issues and varying responsibilities, especially as a Dad, God's word remains the only anchor to keep you still amid the storm of life. However, your understanding of God's promises is key for you to maximize the blessings. Hosea 4:6 says, "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge." I have carefully compiled this inspiring and motivating book to stir hope in Dads and ignite the fire of unwavering faith to quench the doubts and uncertainties that seems to permeate the society. Get set to discover; A special prayer for Dads; Powerful and relevant promises from scriptures for Dad's on different aspects of life; Inspiring illustrations and expositions to help you understand and position you for the reality of His promises; Thought-provoking advice for your children on different issues of life from God's word. Indeed, heaven and earth may pass away, but what God has promised you and your family shall come to pass. Read it, Meditate on it, Believe it.

Promises from God Jul 16 2021 Discover the relevancy of God's promises for every need through this classic compilation, organized topically and presented in the beautiful King James Version.

The One Year Praying the Promises of God Mar 31 2020 Spend this year meditating on the promises of God. In this devotional, Cheri Fuller and Jennifer Kennedy Dean invite readers to explore Gods promises each and every day and encourage them to reflect on how Gods hand is evident if only we look for it. Each reading includes a Bible verse from that days reading in The One Year Bible, a devotional, a prayer, and a quotation that relates to the promise of the day. Each day is an invitation to pursue a closer relationship to God and a reminder that God always keeps his promises.
